

Catholic Woman Of The Year

A committee was set up in 1968 which gives the Catholic Women of the Year awards. It is made by a panel representing the following Catholic organisations:

- 1- The Union of Catholic Mothers.
- 2- The Catholic Union of Great Britain.
- 3- The Catholic Woman's League.
- 4- The Catholic Stage Guild.
- 5- The Catholic Writers Guild.
- 6- The Women's Caring Trust.
- 7- Christian Council on Aging
- 8- Guild of Civil and Public Servants.
- 9- National Association of Catholic Families.
- 10- The Guild of Our Lady of Ransom.
- 11- The Society of St. Augustine of Canterbury.
- 12- The Association of Catholic Women.
- 13- The National Council of the Lay Apostolate.
- 14- Order of the Holy Sepulchre.
- 15- British Federation of Notre Dame Associations.
- 16- The Friends of Westminster Cathedral.
- 17- PACT
- 18- Aid to the Church in Need
- 19- Youth 2000
- 20- The Union of Catholic Mothers, Wales.

The committee receive nominations each year and after careful consideration, it undertakes a secret ballot and four women are chosen. The winners don't receive any money, just the love, support and admiration of other catholic women. The Awards are for women who have made an exceptional contribution to catholic life
